INDIVIDUALIZED EDUCATION PROGRAM WEBINAR SERIES

The Individualized Education Program Process is a series of webinars developed by Pathfinder Services of ND. Designed for families and professionals, the series breaks down each step of the IEP process, helping viewers understand their rights, how to prepare for meetings, and how to support student success. Whether you're new to special education or looking for a refresher, this series offers practical, North Dakota-specific guidance to navigate the IEP with confidence.

Webinar Series:

Building an Individualized Education Program (IEP) Part 1: The Bricks and Mortar of the IEP Process & Part 2: The Blueprint

Building an Individualized Education Program (IEP) is a two-part webinar series for parents and professionals who are participating in the IEP planning process. This webinar series will provide the basic tools to build an IEP that will ensure that an individual with a disability will have an appropriate educational program to accommodate their unique needs. Part 1, The Bricks and Mortar of the IEP Process, will provide parents and professionals with information relating to key IEP timelines, the qualifications of individuals required to attend the IEP meeting, and ideas to assist in getting ready for the IEP meeting.
